PERFORMANCE INDICATORS

- Explain the nature of a promotional plan.
- Identify the elements of the promotional mix.
- Explain the role of promotion as a marketing function.
- Describe factors used by businesses to position corporate brands.
- Reinforce service orientation through communication.

EVENT SITUATION

You are to assume the role of the marketing manager for CARTER'S CARPET CLEANING, a business that provides residential and commercial carpet and upholstery cleaning. The owner of the company (judge) wants you to create a promotional plan to unveil new services offered and a new name.

Since 1959, the Carter family has owned and operated CARTER'S CARPET CLEANING. The business works with commercial clients and residential customers to professionally clean carpeting and upholstered furniture.

The popularity of carpeting has been declining for the past two decades resulting in fewer residential customers needing carpet cleaning services. To keep the business afloat, the owner (judge) has added painting as a new service. CARTER'S CARPET CLEANING will soon begin offering interior house painting services for both residential and commercial clients.

The owner (judge) wants you to first rename the business to better signify the services offered. Next, the owner (judge) wants you to develop a promotional plan that will announce the new services.

You will present your ideas to the owner (judge) in a role-play to take place in the owner's (judge's) office. The owner (judge) will begin the role-play by greeting you and asking to hear your ideas. After you have presented ideas and have answered the owner's (judge's) questions, the owner (judge) will conclude the role-play by thanking you for your work.

JUDGE INSTRUCTIONS

DIRECTIONS, PROCEDURES AND JUDGE ROLE

In preparation for this event, you should review the following information with your event manager and other judges:

1. Participant Instructions, 21st Century Skills and Performance Indicators
2. Event Situation
3. Judge Role-Play Characterization
Allow the participants to present their ideas without interruption, unless you are asked to respond. Participants may conduct a slightly different type of meeting and/or discussion with you each time; however, it is important that the information you provide and the questions you ask be uniform for every participant.
4. Judge Evaluation Instructions and Judge Evaluation Form
Please use a critical and consistent eye in rating each participant.

JUDGE ROLE-PLAY CHARACTERIZATION

You are to assume the role of the owner of CARTER'S CARPET CLEANING, a business that provides residential and commercial carpet and upholstery cleaning. You want the marketing manager (participant) to create a promotional plan to unveil new services offered and a new name.

Since 1959, the Carter family has owned and operated CARTER'S CARPET CLEANING. The business works with commercial clients and residential customers to professionally clean carpeting and upholstered furniture.

The popularity of carpeting has been declining for the past two decades resulting in fewer residential customers needing carpet cleaning services. To keep the business afloat, you have added painting as a new service. CARTER'S CARPET CLEANING will soon begin offering interior house painting services for both residential and commercial clients.

You want marketing manager (participant) to first rename the business to better signify the services offered. Next, you want marketing manager (participant) to develop a promotional plan that will announce the new services.

The participant will present information to you in a role-play to take place in your office. You will begin the role-play by greeting the participant and asking to hear about his/her ideas.

During the course of the role-play, you are to ask the following questions of each participant:

1. Should we tell our current customers before we announce to the general public?
2. Why should we or shouldn't we keep Carter in the business name?

Once the marketing manager (participant) has presented information and has answered your questions, you will conclude the role-play by thanking the marketing manager (participant) for the work.

You are not to make any comments after the event is over except to thank the participant.

EVALUATION INSTRUCTIONS

The participants are to be evaluated on their ability to perform the specific performance indicators stated on the cover sheet of this event and restated on the Judge's Evaluation Form. Although you may see other performance indicators demonstrated by the participants, those listed in the Performance Indicators section are the critical ones you are measuring for this particular event.

Evaluation Form Interpretation

The evaluation levels listed below and the evaluation rating procedures should be discussed thoroughly with your event director and the other judges to ensure complete and common understanding for judging consistency.

Level of Evaluation	Interpretation Level
Exceeds Expectations	Participant demonstrated the performance indicator in an extremely professional manner; greatly exceeds business standards; would rank in the top 10% of business personnel performing this performance indicator.
Meets Expectations	Participant demonstrated the performance indicator in an acceptable and effective manner; meets at least minimal business standards; there would be no need for additional formalized training at this time; would rank in the 70-89 th percentile of business personnel performing this performance indicator.
Below Expectations	Participant demonstrated the performance indicator with limited effectiveness; performance generally fell below minimal business standards; additional training would be required to improve knowledge, attitude and/or skills; would rank in the 50-69 th percentile of business personnel performing this performance indicator.
Little/No Value	Participant demonstrated the performance indicator with little or no effectiveness; a great deal of formal training would be needed immediately; perhaps this person should seek other employment; would rank in the 0-49 th percentile of business personnel performing this performance indicator.
